Introduction

About Ashburton Prescribing Consultants

At Ashburton Prescribing Consultants, we lead the way in pharmaceutical care across the UK, redefining medication management in General Practice.

Our goal is to transform how GP surgeries and Primary Care Networks manage medication, elevating patient experiences, outcomes and operational efficiency.

With a team of expert pharmacist prescribing consultants, rigorously trained and supported, we bring deep understanding and invaluable contributions to your healthcare team.

Our Goals

We understand the importance of strong and lasting relationships in healthcare. We focus on forming high-quality partnerships with each GP practice or PCN we work with.

Our model is built on trust and rapport, where our pharmacists - our Prescribing Consultants - become an integral part of a practice team – a go-to expert in all matters concerning medications and prescribing.

We and our Prescribing Consultants are your partner in healthcare excellence, dedicated to elevating the standards of medication management in General Practice across the UK.

Our Service

Our Commitment to You and Your Practice

Expert Pharmaceutical Care: Our comprehensively trained and supported pharmacists will focus on structured medication reviews, hypertension clinics and offering thorough and practical medicines information to your clinicians.

Efficiency in Key Areas: We aim to streamline your practice's operations, particularly in managing prescription requests and medicines reconciliations, with options to offer face-to-face and virtual patient appointments. This directly contributes to improved patient outcomes and practice efficiency.

Bespoke Healthcare Solutions: Recognising the evolving needs of your patient base, we're prepared to offer adaptable services like chronic disease clinics, as well as undertake quality improvement projects and clinical audits, ensuring a tailored approach to patient care.

Building a Trusted Partnership: We seek to establish a long-term, collaborative relationship, where our pharmacists become an integral part of your team, aligning with your practice's goals and contributing to a cohesive healthcare environment.

Ongoing Commitment to Excellence: Our continuous pursuit of excellence and improvement in pharmaceutical care ensures that we remain at the forefront of patient care and operational efficiency, consistently adding value to your network
